

Thomas B. Lindsey

MURRAY—Thomas Brent Lindsey, 36, son of Ruth and Glenn roy, Utah, died from complications arising from Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS).

Tom was born and raised in Salt Lake City and attended Skyline High School. Mr. Lindsey moved from Salt Lake City to San Francisco in 1975 and was one of the first people to contract the infectious illness, which is a support group for people facing life threatening illness).

While employed as the Administrative Manager for the Boy Area Council, Tom Lindsey found the time to train numerous individuals for Shanti and was instrumental in the project's growth to accommodate the needs of a growing community. Lindsey was diagnosed with AIDS in March of 1983. Rather than retreat into seclusion Tom chose to return to Salt Lake City and try to impact AIDS awareness in the state. He was a familiar figure on numerous AIDS discussion panels and television programs, and was a frequent speaker at church discussion groups. Mr. Lindsey was elected president of AIDS Project Utah in 1984. He was appointed to the Utah State AIDS Commission, but was unable to participate due to the debilitating progression of AIDS. Tom was an outgoing, compassionate man, who made friends easily. He was a man of principal and cherished personal relations above all else. He was an avid reader and voracious snowbird collector.

In addition to his parents, Lindsey is survived by his sister, Cindy Crosby Bountiful; Mrs. Ronda Bergstedt; Mrs. Quincy Thornton, both Salt Lake City; brother, Mr. Jim Lindsey, West Valley City; numerous nieces and nephews; close family friends, Mr. Lyle O. Keyes, Mr. Mike Glenn, both Salt Lake City; Mr. Russell Kassman, San Francisco; Colleen, daughter of Lindsey and a friend, Mr. Allen Lindsey Kassman, San Francisco, California.

Funeral services will be held Monday, 12 noon, Our Saviors Lutheran Church, 2500 East 3900 South. Friends may call at Jenkins-Sofie Mortuary, 4760 South State, Sunday 6-8 p.m. Interment, Murray City Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to the Utah AIDS Foundation of Salt Lake City.

Tom 6/23